Who is Holy Prophet Samuel?

Samuel lived more than 1146 years before the Birth of Christ. He was son of Elkanah of Mount Ephraim, of the Tribe of Levi. His mother Hannah prayed to God for a child vowing to dedicate him to God, so he was named Samuel, which means “besought from God”. At age 3, his mother took him to Shiloh to fulfill her vow, placing him under the care of High Priest Eli, who was a judge over Israel. Samuel grew in the fear of God. At 12 he had a revelation that God would punish the house of High Priest Eli, because he did not restrain the impiety of his sons. Eli’s whole family was wiped out in a single day when Philistines slayed 30,000 Israelites in battle, gaining victory and capturing the Ark of the Covenant. Hearing this, High Priest Eli fell backwards from his seat at the gate, broke his back, and died. Samuel then was a judge of Israel. The Ark of God was returned by the Philistines on their own initiative. After returning to God, the Israelites regained all cities that Philistines had taken. In his old age, Prophet Samuel made his sons Joel and Abiah judges over Israel, but unlike their father, they were motivated by greed. Then the elders of Israel demanded of Samuel that Israel be “like other nations” (1 Sam/1 Kgs 8: 20), and have a king. Samuel anointed Saul as king, but saw in this a downfall of the people, whom God Himself had governed until this time, announcing His will through His chosen saints. Resigning the position of judge, Prophet Samuel asked the people if they agreed to his continued governance, but no one stepped forward for him. After denouncing the first king, Saul, for his disobedience to God, Prophet Samuel anointed David as king. He had offered David asylum, saving him from the pursuit of King Saul. Prophet Samuel died in extreme old age. His life is recorded in the Bible (1 Sam/1 Kgs; Sirach 46:13-20). In the year 406 A.D. the relics of Prophet Samuel were transferred from Judea to Constantinople.
