Excerpt from Christ Our Pascha

The capacity of a human being to receive the gift of grace depends on one's degree of openness and commitment to God. In accepting God's grace, a person cooperates with it and grows with it. Perfect cooperation between human will and God's grace is exemplified in the Annunciation of the Most Pure Virgin Mary. This is evident in Mary's own words: "Behold, I am the servant of the Lord; let it be done to me according to your word" (Lk1:38, rsv-ce). By virtue of her assent, the God-Bearer became a participant in the mystery of salvation. (# 746)

Who is Venerable Father Euthymius the Younger?

Euthymius was born about 377 in Armenia, the son of pious parents named Paul and Dionysia. Euthymius means "good cheer" or "joy" for his mother had been barren. He studied under Eutroius, the Bishop of Melitene, by whom he was ordained and entrusted with the care of the monasteries of Melitene. After he came to Palestine about 406, he was the leader of a multitude of monks. Through him, a great tribe of Arabs was turned to piety, when he healed the ailing son of their leader. Saint Euthymius also fought against the Nestorians, Eutychians, and Manichaeans. When Eudocia, the widow of Saint Theodosius the Younger, had made her dwelling in Palestine, and had fallen into the heresy of the Monophysites which was championed in Palestine by a certain Theodosius, she sent envoys to Saint Symeon the Stylite in Syria (see Sept.1), asking him his opinion of Eutyches and the Council of Chalcedon which had condemned him; Saint Symeon, praising the holiness and Orthodoxy of Saint Euthymius near whom she dwelt, sent her to him to be delivered from her error. He became the divine oracle of the Church, or rather, "the vessel of divine utterance," as a historian writes. He was instructor and elder of Saint Sabbas the Sanctified. He lived for ninety-six years until 473.
