Excerpt from Christ Our Pascha

Avarice (Love of Money) and its Opposite Virtue - Generosity

Avarice is a passion for money and material goods. The Holy Fathers taught that love of wealth is not part of man's inate nature, but appears as a distortion of man's desire for eternal life. The passion for acquiring wealth, which takes possession of a person, makes someone a slave to money. The acquisition of wealth becomes an end in itself and leads to various sins. Such a passion gives rise to the illusion of ones self-sufficiency as we come to rely solely on material goods. Saint John Chrysostom teaches: "Wealth is not a bad thing, but avarice and love of money are. A covetous person is one thing, and the rich person is another thing. The covetous person is not rich; he is in want of many things, and while he needs many things, he can never be rich. The covetous man is a keeper, not a master, of wealth; a slave, not a lord."(#764)

The virtue of generosity and its concrete expression, almsgiving, make a person capable of properly managing material goods and growing rich in God. St. John Chrysostom exhorts: "... why then do we, to the neglect of our own selves, waste all our attention upon those things, which when we are gone we can no longer reach..."(#765)

Who is The Holy Prophet Zephaniah (Sophonias)?

Holy Prophet Sophonias (Zephaniah) is the ninth in order of the twelve minor prophets in the Bible. He foretold the destruction of the Temple, Jerusalem, and the Kingdom of Israel; the conversion of the Gentiles, the rejection of sinners, the glorification of the saints, and the general judgement. Holy Prophet Sophonias lived in the 7th century B.C. This feast reminds us that Christ is the fulfillment of the Old Testament.

Please remember in your prayers long-time parishioner Anatoliy Nazaruk, cherished husband of Lyubov Moroz and loving father to Andriy and Julia, who passed to eternal life on Tuesday, November 14, 2017. Vichnaya Pamyat! – Eternal Memory!
