Excerpt from Christ Our Pascha

Symbol of Faith

The profession of the [Symbol of Faith] is the prayerful contemplation of the Church, and the sign of unity of Christians in faith: “Let your Symbol of Faith be, as it were, a mirror to you. Therein see yourself, whether you believe everything you profess to believe, and so rejoice day by day in your faith.” (Augustine of Hippo) (#5)

June 17, 2018 - Spiritual Renewal and Pilgrimage to Shrine of Christ's Passion, St. John, Indiana

Today, June 17, 2018 our parish will have a day of spiritual renewal and a pilgrimage to the Shrine of Christ's Passion in St. John, Indiana. We welcome all the pilgrims from various parishes in Chicago and the suburbs. After Liturgy at 9:30 am, there will be blessing by the relics of St. Josaphat and anointing with blessed oil. Following liturgy, we then will have a concert and prayer program in the church hall prepared by the children and young people of the parish. At 1:00 pm we will travel to St. John; on arrival there will be common prayer, the Way of the Cross, and the final blessing.
