Bishop Benedict will join our parish at our annual Feast Day Liturgy & Dinner for our patron St. Josaphat on November 18, 2018

Парафіяльні Оголошення.

1. Згідно опитування наших парохіян, Пасторальна рада разом із адміністратором парафії вирішила під час Літургії на молитовні прохання виголошені англійською мовою відповідати по-англійськи і, відповідно, виголошені українською мовою - відповідати по-українськи.
2. Запрошуємо долучатись усіх бажаючих. Нам потрібні додаткові волонтери для нашого приготування пирогів. Особливо підготовка продуктів (четвер вранці) та їх ліплення і варіння (п'ятниця).
3. Просимо молитися за мир у світі, особливо за закінчення війни та мир в Україні.
4. Щиро запрошуємо усіх парафіян та прихожан на смачну каву та солодке після Літургії.

Parish Announcements.

1. In accord with the voting of our parishioners, it is the decision of the Pastoral Council and the Pastor that during Divine Liturgy the faithful should respond in English when the priest prays in English, and respond in Ukrainian when the priest prays in Ukrainian.
2. We are in need of additional volunteers for our pyrohy ministry, especially in the food preparation area (Thursday morning) and in the cooking area (Friday).
3. We call upon all our parishioners to pray for peace in the world, especially for the end of the war and peace in Ukraine.
4. A warm welcome to all our visitors today. We invite you to join us for coffee and rolls following our Liturgy.

Who is Venerable Father Theodore the Studite?

Theodore was born in 759, in Constantinople [now Istanbul, Tur.], the son of pious parents who gave up everything for the life of ascetism. Under the influence of his uncle, Abbot Plato of Symbola (later a saint), Theodore became a monk and, later, abbot of a monastery near Mount Olympus in Bithynia (northwestern Turkey). For opposing as adulterous the second marriage of the Byzantine emperor Constantine VI to his mistress Theodote in 795, Theodore was exiled to Thessalonica, Greece. After Constantine's overthrow in 797, Theodore was recalled by the empress Irene. Thereafter, his religious community moved to the monastery of Studios in Constantinople. In 806 he clashed with the emperor Nicephorus I (who asserted authority over the Eastern church) about the appointment of Patriarch Nicephorus of Constantinople. Theodore was condemned by a council and exiled a second time (809–811). When iconoclasm was revived by the emperor Leo V, Theodore led the opposition against the iconoclasts who were against the veneration of religious images and he was again exiled (816–820). Recalled by the emperor Michael II, who nevertheless favored the iconoclastic party, Theodore was not allowed to resume his abbacy. With his monks he spent the rest of his life near Constantinople. He had fought for church independence from imperial power; because the patriarchs of Constantinople often had to compromise with the Byzantine emperors, he opposed the patriarchs too. His works include homilies, three polemical treatises against the Iconoclasts, and nearly 600 letters. He died Nov. 11, 826, at Prinkipo, an island in the Sea of Marmara.
