How to Make a No-Sew Face Mask

As the Stay-At-Home order in Indiana is once again extended, when you go out for essentials you may want to wear a face mask, but face masks are hard to buy and not everyone can sew. Here's an easy no-sew face mask:

1. Lay out a bandana or cut a 22"x 22" square of cotton fabric
2.  Place a piece of flat coffee filter in the center (optional)
3.  Fold the top and bottom in towards the center, Then again, fold the top and bottom in towards the center
4.  Optional: Place a twist tie, paper clip, or other flexible metal piece close to the top center inside the folded material so you can form it to your nose bridge
5.  Fold the sides in towards the center, placing your ties at the folded crease. If you're using rubber bands or hair ties, loop these around the fabric. If you're using shoelaces or string, place the center of the string in the folded crease and pull the straps tight. Tuck one end of the fabric into the other. Or staple/clip the side folds.
6.  Lift the mask to your face and secure the straps. For hair ties and rubber bands, loop them over each ear. For shoelaces and string, tie them behind your head
7.  Adjust as needed, making sure your mouth and nose are completely covered. If you put some metal inside the last fold, adjust it to fit the top of your nose (bridge).

The Best Role of All

The church school was getting ready for the annual Easter pageant and all the children were asked to choose which part they wanted to play. One child chose to play Mary Magdalene, other children chose to play Saint Peter, or Joseph of Arimathea, and so forth. But, when it came time for Johnny's turn to choose, he happily wanted to be the angel who rolls away the stone that sealed the tomb of Our Lord.

After the pageant was over and Johnny was going home with his parents, his mother expressed how disappointed they were that he didn't choose a larger, more prominent role in the play. Johnny, however, was bouncing excitedly all over the back seat, obviously thrilled with his performance in the pageant. Finally, his mother turned to him and asked, "Tell me,

Johnny, why are you so happy about just being the angel who rolls away the stone from the tomb? Wouldn't you have liked to have had a bigger part to play?" Johnny replied quite innocently, "Oh, no, mom, just think! I'm the one who gets to let Jesus out! What role could be better than that?"

"The myrrh-bearing women arrived just before the dawn at the tomb of the Giver of Life and found an angel seated on the stone who spoke these words to them: 'Why do you seek the living among the dead? Why do you mourn the Incorruptible among those subject to decay? Go announce the good news to His disciples!'" (From Resurrection Matins) Let us continue to announce the good news and joyfully sing out: "Christ is Risen! Indeed He is Risen!"
