What is the Sunday of All Saints of Rus-Ukraine?

Today we celebrate the memory of the astonishing and holy people which the Holy Spirit produced on the lands of Rus'-Ukraine. The Church shows us these extraordinary people - key people - who are nonetheless ordinary people, like us. They are extraordinary because despite all their weaknesses, their mistakes and their sins they always kept on moving towards the highest of callings with faith and faithfulness, with humility and confidence. They hesitated. They often fell down along the way. They were sometimes full of anguish, doubt and pain. But they always ended by getting up again and pushing on towards the light and the truth, towards love and goodness. Thus they were also very ordinary people - like us. By honoring the saints we honor God, for respect shown to them is respect shown to God. The saints did not become saints through their own power; their holiness is the result of God's grace. All they are they owe to God. Your martyrs' blood testifies before heaven and earth to your unwavering faith in God. You are our powerful intercessors before the throne of the Most High. Therefore, with the Mother of God, implore the heavenly Father, the Savior Jesus Christ, and the Holy Spirit, the Comforter, a continuous blessing upon our Church and nation, so that they could joyfully and freely glorify your holy names.

Nowhere in Israel Have I Found as Much Faith

In the Gospel we heard our own faith extolled as it was manifested by humility. The Lord Jesus agreed to go to the centurion's house to cure his servant, but he replied: I am not worthy to have you under my roof; only say the word and my servant will be healed. In protesting his unworthiness the centurion showed himself worthy to have Christ enter not his house but his heart. Yet he could not have said this with such faith and humility unless he already bore within his heart the One he was too overawed to have within his house.

In any case, there would have been no great happiness at the entry of the Lord Jesus within his walls if He were not present in his heart. ... The centurion's house He did not in fact enter, but He took possession of his heart. The centution said: I am not worthy to have you under my roof. The Lord praised the faith shown by his humility, replying: I tell you, not even in Israel have I found faith like this. He meant Israel in a physical sense, for the centurion was already an Israelite in spirit.

The Lord had come to the people of Israel, that is to the Jews, to seek out the lost sheep first among that people in whom and from whom he had taken flesh; but not even there, He says, did He find such faith. We can only judge a person's faith from a human viewpoint; but He who sees the heart and whom no one ever deceives testified to the state of this man's heart: on hearing the centurion's humble words He pronounced His assurance of healing.
