Who is Holy Martyr Luppus?

The Martyr Luppus lived at the end of the third century and beginning of the fourth century. Luppus was a servant of St. Demetrius the commander of Thessalonica. When Emperor Maximian beheaded St. Demetrius, Luppus dipped the hem of his garment and his ring in the blood of the martyr. With this garment and ring, Luppus worked many miracles in Thessalonica, healing people of every pain and infirmity. Emperor Maximian, who was then still residing in Thessalonica, discovered this and ordered that Luppus be tortured and killed. However, the soldiers who took up weapons against Luppus turned against one another and severely wounded themselves. As he was not yet baptized, even though he was a Christian, Luppus prayed to God that He would somehow plan his baptism before his death. At that moment, rain unexpectedly fell from the clouds upon this holy martyr and thus he received baptism from on high. Saint Luppus voluntarily delivered himself into the hands of the torturers, and after great suffering, by order of the emperor Maximian Galerius, he was beheaded by the sword.

It is with great sadness we must inform you that Larry Baker, husband of our dear parishioner Patricia Baker, went to the Lord on August 12, 2020. A Private Funeral Service was on Sunday, August 16, 2020. Please keep Larry in your prayers and pray that his wife Pat and their family may be consoled. Eternal Memory. Вічна пам'ять.

The Danger of Riches

One day, an Indian boy found a large pearl. It represented the fulfillment of all his hopes and dreams. His days of hardship and toil would be over. He would never have to work again. But, when he tried to sell the pearl, his real problems began. Buyers tried to trick him, bandits tried to attack him, and even his friends tried to manipulate him. Possessing great wealth was nothing like he expected it would be, so he took the pearl and threw it back into sea.

The boy in this story is quite a contrast to the young man of whom Jesus spoke in the Gospel reading for this Sunday. Jesus spoke of a young man who desired to be justified by God. He had faithfully kept all the commandments, but Jesus told him that there was one thing he still needed to do: sell all he had and give to the poor. With that, the young man went away saddened because he was not able to easily part with all his possessions. Jesus then spoke one of His most enduring statements, "It will be easier for a camel to pass through the needles eye, than for a rich man to enter the kingdom of God." (Matthew 21:24)

What type of hold do our possessions have on us? Are we willing to share what we have with others, including our time, our talents, as well as our treasure? Everything that we have is a gift from God, which must be freely shared with others as a gift. Our Lord Himself tells us, "The gifts you have freely received, now give as a gift." (Matthew 10:8)
