Who is Nestor, writer of the First Chronicle of Kyivian Rus' ?

St. Nestor the Chronicler, of the Kyiv Caves, Near Caves was born at Kyiv in 1050. He came to St. Theodosius as a young man, becoming a novice, then a monk and was ordained a hierodeacon. He appreciated true knowledge, along with humility and penitence. In the monastery Nestor had the obedience of being the chronicler. In the 1080s he wrote the "Account about the Life and Martyrdom of the Blessed Passion Bearers Boris and Gleb". In the 1080s Nestor also compiled the Life of the Monk Theodosius of the Kyiv Caves. The chief work of St. Nestor was compiling in 1112-1113 The Primary Chronicle of Rus'. His history of Kyivian Rus' has preserved for us an account of the first Christian church in Kyiv (945), the holy Varangian Martyrs (983), the "testing of the faiths" by Saint Vladimir (in 986) and the Baptism of Rus' (in 988). Nestor died around the year 1114, leaving to the monastic chroniclers of the Kyiv Caves the continuation of his great work. He was buried in the Near Caves of St. Anthony.

Physicians Who Work for Free

On November 1st, we celebrate the feast of two remarkable brothers who lived during the early years of the Christian Church. Cosmas and Damian were born of wealthy parents in Asia Minor who gave their sons the best education in the Roman Empire.

They were interested in medicine and became physicians at an early age. During this same time, the two brothers also became Christians. Their unique combination of medicine and prayer attracted the attention of many. Through their commitment to Christ they endeavored to become healers not only of the body, but of the soul as well. Consequently, their fame spread and they soon developed a reputation as being miracle-workers who could heal with an herb as well as with a prayer.

About this same time, the brothers made a most unique pledge: they pledged not to take any money for their services. They healed thousands of people from diseases of body and soul and never accepted anything for their efforts. Their reputation spread even more rapidly as they became known as "unmercenaries" – someone who does not expect payment of any kind in return for services rendered.

In a sense, each of us can become unmercenaries in the same spirit as were Saints Cosmas and Damian. Each of us can freely give something of ourselves without expecting anything in return. Perhaps we can give our time to a person in need without expecting an equal favor in return. Perhaps we can freely give advice without being offended if it is not followed. Or, perhaps we can give the gift of forgiveness without receiving an apology in return.
