Be as tall as the willow, as healthy as the water and as rich as the Earth.

Не я б'ю, Буд' великі як верба, здорові 'як вода, багаті як земля.

I'm not tapping, the willow is tapping. Easter is in a week!

Не я б'ю – верба б'є! Через тиждень – Великдень

ANNUAL SVIACHENE DINNER

Please mark your calendars to attend the Annual Sviachene Dinner following Divine Liturgy on Sunday, April 27, 2025. Please invite your family and friends to attend this festive celebration!

Prayer list of the sick or aged parishioners & friends of the parish

Donald William Churilla, Michael Ortiz, Charlotte Scheuer, Pat Baker, Olga Wasylowsky, Teodozia Shyika Lucyk, Stephanie Babij, Georgia Sosnowski, Myroslava Iwachiw, Irene Karpinec, and young Samuel Rocha.

Remember those who suffered or died due to Covid 19.

Please pray for those who have been killed, injured or displaced due to war in Ukraine.

If you know of someone who should be on this list, please let me know the name of the individual. Our intercessory prayer for the sick and aged is truly helpful and comforting. Father Volodymyr would like to visit our sick and elderly parishioners, especially those who cannot be with us for liturgies. Please call him at 773-979-4737 to let him know who would like a visit. О. Володимир бажає відвідати хворих та старших парафіян, які не можуть приходити до церкви. Просимо повідомити його за номером 773-979-4737.

With rising prices, please remember those who have less. Donated food items are given to the local food pantry. Sharing food with those in need is a good Lenten practice (also anytime!). Please show your thanks to God for what you have by sharing generously with others.

Rejoice at His Coming!

Let us say to Christ: Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord, the king of Israel. Let us hold before Him like palm branches those final words inscribed above the cross. Let us show Him honor, not with olive branches but with the splendor of merciful deeds to one another. Let us spread the thoughts and desires of our hearts under His feet like garments, so that entering us with the whole of his being, He may draw the whole of our being into Himself and place the whole of His in us. Let us say to Zion in the words of the prophet: Have courage, daughter of Zion, do not be afraid. Behold, your king comes to you, humble and mounted on a colt, the foal of a beast of burden. He is coming who is everywhere present and pervades all things; He is coming to achieve in you His work of universal salvation. He is coming who came to call to repentance not the righteous but sinners, coming to recall those who have strayed into sin. Do not be afraid, then: God is in the midst of you, and you shall not be shaken.

Receive Him with open, outstretched hands, for it was on His own hands that He sketched you. Receive Him who laid your foundations on the palms of His hands. Receive Him, for He took upon Himself all that belongs to us except sin, to consume what is ours in what is His. Be glad, city of Zion, our mother, and fear not. Celebrate your feasts. Glorify Him for His mercy, who has come to us in you. Rejoice exceedingly, daughter of Jerusalem, sing and leap for joy. Be enlightened, be enlightened, we cry to you, as holy Isaiah trumpeted, for the light has come to you and the glory of the Lord has risen over you.

And what is this glory of the Lord? Clearly it is the cross on which Christ was glorified, He, the radiance of the Father's glory, even as He said when He faced His passion: Now is the Son of Man glorified, and God is glorified in him, and will glorify him at once. The glory of which He speaks here is His lifting up on the cross, for Christ's glory is His cross and His exultation upon it, as He plainly says: When I have been lifted up, I will draw all men to myself.
